Giving for a good cause at Saydel

Saydel high school students and staff came together for a good cause this week as the Saydel High School Student Council sponsored their annual blood drive. Did you know that for every pint of blood donated, three lives are saved? Wednesday, November 19th. Saydel Student Government and student body participation assisted with collect THIRTY pints of blood, twelve more pints of blood than the goal. Saydel Student Government and Saydel student body has been consistently participating, saving lives, and even earning scholarships simply by donating their blood. Missed us this time, not sure you were ready, or can't wait to do it again??? Come on back Wednesday, May 13, 2015 when we have our Spring Blood Drive. Thank you to all our donors!

Saydel High School

Saydel High School competed in their first robotics competition of the year at Valley High School over the weekend. The team did great for a first year team finishing in 5th place. The team will compete on December 13th at Dallas Center-Grimes and January 10th at Saydel. For more information about the team or interest in volunteering please contact Joshua Heyer at heyerjoshua@saydel.net.

Winter Practices Underway

The air outside turned cold (very cold this November) and that means that winter sports are here! All junior high and high school practices are currently underway and competitions start right away on Monday. The Saydel High School teams are attempting to build off some great success last season. The Saydel wrestlers start their defense of the HOIAC duals crown right after Thanksgiving break with a JV/V dual at South Hamilton. Saydel returns a good number of varsity wrestlers from last season including two senior state qualifiers. The girls' basketball team tied the school record for wins in a season and returns nearly everybody to a team that starts the year ranked #14 in class 3A. The boys' basketball team also so success as they more then tripled their win total from the year before and finished in the middle of the pack in the HOIAC. All of our varsity teams look to compete for conference championships in 2014-15! Come out and cheer them on!!!!

Cornell Elementary

Preschool students at Cornell Elementary have been busy learning about trees through our Creative Curriculum studies. During this study, our students have used skills in literacy, math, and art to investigate trees. Students have been busy learning about the characteristics of trees, what animals live in trees, and what food grows on trees. Students engaged in hands

-on learning by sorting leaves by color, size, and shape. Here is a picture of our students going on a tree hunt around our building.

Woodside Middle School

The Woodside Middle School Student Council is excited to be sponsoring a blood drive at WMS in the mobile bus. This will take place December 2, the Tuesday following Thanksgiving Break.

We are currently scheduling appointments to begin at 7:00 A.M. Our blood drive will last until 10:30 A.M. Once again our session will be in honor of Jacob Opel, a young man taken too early from our Saydel family. Please consider signing up for this celebration of Jacob's life.

If you cannot donate, perhaps you have a neighbor or friend who might be able to take advantage this opportunity. To schedule your appointment, contact Doug Cline at clinedoug@saydel.net, call 265-3451 ex 2108, or stop by room 108. Our goal is 10 blood donations. We can achieve this with your help. Your gift this holiday season could be the gift of life. Thank you!!!
