Softball advances to the 2nd round!!

Last night the Saydel Eagles hosted the Newton Cardinals in the first round of IGHS AU Regional play in class 4A. The Eagles knew they had to get the bats going early if they were going to pull off the victory. Senior Mackenzie Miller playing in her final game on the home field for the Eagles took care of the scoring by blasting a huge grand slam in the bottom of the second inning. That was her third big fly of the year and put her in a tie for the team lead in homeruns. The mammoth shot put the Cardinals in a huge hole and the Eagle defense slammed the door shut behind the solid pitching of Annika Hofbauer. Hofbauer picked up her 10th win on the season and lowered her team leading 3.22 ERA. The Eagles were all over the base paths all night en route to the 6-0 victory with contributions coming from Liz Miklus. The junior center fielder has had a great 2014 season as she hit .568 with 33 runs scored and 25 stolen bases. She is one triple shy of beating her own school season record of 4 triples in a year. All four of these categories were tops in the HOIAC conference in 2014. Up next for the Eagles is a trip tomorrow night down to Indianola to face the reigning 4A 3rd place state finishing Indianola Indians. Start time is 7:00 at Indianola High School. Tickets for this game may be purchased at the door with no passes allowed at this contest.

With the end of the regular season comes the final standings in the HOIAC. The Eagles finished the season in a three team tie for 6th place. The very young and at times inconsistent Eagles look poised for great things to come in the future as they continue to build upon the successes this season. With wins this season over conference champion PCM, 5A Bettendorf and beating everyone at the Woodward-Granger tournament, the future is bright for this team. Come down to Indianola to cheer on the Eagles as they show the best of 4A softball what they can do! GO EAGLES!!

Today's Trivia Question

Which Eagle baseball player is currently ranked 3rd in the HOI-AC in batting average (with qualifying at-bats) (Answer can be found on the last page of the Eagle Express)

Saydel Baseball

The Eagles took care of business again at home and sent the Chariton Chargers home with a 12-2 victory last night. The win was the 20th on the season for Saydel. The Eagles honored the career accomplishments of seven seniors in front of great crowd. Senior Alex Gustafson and sophomore Dylan Coffin each added 3 hits for the Eagles and Senior Brandon Hodges continued his strong pitching with a six inning, seven strikeout performance. Brandon was selected as the Iowa Sports Spotlight/Hyvee Horizon Student Athlete of the Week. Brandon will be presented his award and honored at the next home game, Tuesday night against Bondurant.

Overall the last few weeks have been strong for the Eagles as they keep working toward the post-season. The Eagles have been led all season by their strong pitching and timely hitting. Hodges' 0.56 ERA puts him in 5th place in 3A and tops in the HOIAC amongst starting pitchers. His wins, innings pitched, and strikeouts are all at the top of 3A. The team is currently 11th in 3A in runs scored, 6th in RBI, 16th in BA, 13th in ERA, 2nd in strikeouts. The Eagles have also been ranked as high as 7th in 3A and finished in 2nd place in the conference with a 16-2 record. Tonight the Eagles travel to Newton to take on the Cardinals. JV takes the field at 5:30 with the Varsity to follow at 7:30.
